

DHS-Sponsored Skills Workshop for Certified Child Passenger Safety Instructors

Program description: This course is designed for beginning thru advanced presenters to improve delivery and enhance audience impact. PrepMasters Expert Trainers will help you learn to build instructor confidence and credibility, recognize your best qualities and how to use them, and establish rapport with the audience. Through questioning techniques, speech planning and structure; dynamic introduction and closing techniques; and many other strategies, you will learn to deliver training that motivates participants to learn. <http://www.prepmasters.com/>

Key Learning Objectives:

- Use adult learning techniques to improve retention and reduce learner resistance.
- Use audience involvement techniques to identify and handle questions.
- Pace methods to maintain high energy and active learning by the participants.
- Overcome nervousness, anxiety and any distracting mannerisms.
- Present technical information clearly, concisely and persuasively
- Adjust instructional techniques to meet your groups needs
- Avoid overuse of lectures with participation techniques
- Identify different methods for responding to questions
- Structure presentations to gain maximum effect.
- Deal with difficult group members effectively.
- Evaluate 10 aspects of your instructional style
- Maintain control through teaching techniques
- Learn valuable classroom management skills
- Guidelines for effective use of audio visuals
- Avoid the biggest presenter mistakes.
- Find and use your style of humor

Methods: PrepMasters leads you to discover & develop your own hidden instructional talents, so you can use them to effectively direct student-learning and implement knowledge transfer within a collaborative learning environment. Our programs will develop and renew your instructional skill set by integrating the most recent advancements in knowledge-transfer and acquisition with practical presentation and classroom management skills. Programs are based on sound research by the National Science Foundation, University of California Irvine Center for Learning and Memory, ASTD, Department of Education, and more Research Sources Through our visionary approach to teacher education we strive to cultivate your instructor talents: leadership, presentation-skills, classroom management, and personal professionalism. These are qualities we believe are essential for you to lead students into educational satisfaction and excellence.